Editor: J.H. Charles, 21, Church Green, Stowlawn. Bilston STAFFS. WV14 6HJ.

Editorial: As readers will probably know from other sources, I have taken over as Editor of the Staffs Chess News from David Anderton and trust I shall be able to follow the standard set by him during his term of office. David has now been appointed Vice President of the B.C.F. and I feel sure he will carry the best wishes of all Staffs chess players for success in his new position.

Readers will obviously note the change in format of the Magazine and I hope will appreciate the reasons behind the change. The new size of the News will save paper, be easier to produce and will allow more news to be condensed into less space. This is how we think it will benefit the reader in theory - we shall see what happens in practice.

As this is also a new venture for me, I hope all club and league Secs will co-operate in sending copy for the Magazine. Any snippet of Chess news will be welcome plus any results such as Friendly matches, etc., I also hope to start a 'Heard round the Boards' corner for any kind of humorous - or should it be humorous - comment overheard during any kind of game. The sort of remark I mean would be something like the one made by a youngster taking part in the under/12s during the Staffs Congress, he was heard to say "I can't move yet until my Dad comes back". Very funny to the Controller but also useful when the erring parent did return.

In this first issue for the 1973/74 season, may I wish all players a good and enjoyable share of all that Chess has to offer and keep the news coming.

Junior Prize: C.W. Baker.

The Open produced a close struggle with the lead changing hands on a number of occasions. Williams looked to be the winner until he lost to Ripley in the last round. Horner & Ripley - the co-winners - played some interesting games and Ripley's win against Holloway was the most brilliant of the event.

One unfortunate feature of the Congress was the number of games forfeit on the last day because players were unable to attend. The WEEKEND SPECIAL was designed to accommodate these players and thus avoid inconvenience to other players in the league.

MIDLAND CLUBS CHAMPIONSHIP SEMI-FINAL.

In this match, which was played at Birmingham on 17th. June, 1973, Electra lost 2 - 4 to Birmingham Nomads. This was a very disappointing result for the Staffs club since the Nomads were missing several strong players and they (Electra) were at full strength.
