Staffs Chess News

EDITOR: JOHN CHARLES, 21 Church Green, Bilston, Staffs (Tel: Bilston 41171 - days)

Editor: J.H. Charles. 21, Church Green, Stowlawn, Dilston. STAFFS. WV14. 6HJ.

Editorial: The previous issue contained a few errors for which I apologise and hope I can avoid in future issues. To put the records straight I must point out that David Anderton has been appointed DEPUTY PRESIDENT to the B.C.F. and not Vice President as I so wrongly stated. An omission also was the name of N.C. Sampays who came second in the Under 21s at the Staffs Congress.

I haven't received any contributions for a humorous 'Heard round the Boards' corner but it is early days yet or perhaps we take our chess too seriously.

As some readers have probably noticed, we have at long last established a Chess Column with the local newspaper the 'Express & Star'. This column appears in Saturday editions and will, I hope, become a permanent feature, but in order for this to be achieved there must be plenty of news to report so once again I ask all readers to co-operate in forwarding any Chess news to me at the above address.

I will end by wishing all Chess players a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR and keep the news flowing.

J.H.C.

APPEAL FOR STAFFORDSHIRE CHESS NEWS.

The secretary of the Staffs Chess Association is trying to build up a complete picture of Staffs chess from its foundation in 1897 to the present day and is eager to hear from anyone able to help.

He would particularly like to request anyone with spare copies of old magazines and bulletins such as the 'North Staffs Chess News' and 'Wolverhampton Bulletin' to loan, or better still donate them to the S.C.A.

The collection, when complete, would be held by the 'WILLIAM SALT LIBRARY' in perpetuity, so if you think you can assist in any way then Peter Jackson will be only too happy to hear from you.

APPEAL FROM THE BRITISH CHESS EDUCATIONAL TRUST.

The British Chess Educational Trust needs funds to enable it to expand the programme of training talented juniors, in which at the present time the Country is rich.

All donations are welcome, but covenanted income helps most of all, not only because the Trust can take advantage of tax concessions, but also because the Trustees can better plan their expenditure because they know their income.

The Trustees are: Sir Richard Clark, R.C. Hopton & V.J. Soanes.

If you require full information please write to:- B.C.E.T., Juniper Cottage, South Park Crescent, Gorrards Cross. SL9 8HJ.

Wolverhampton Chess League. (Change of Venues).

Blanford Mere now play at The British Legion Club, Summerhill Road, Kingswinford.

West Midlands Municipal Chess Club now play at the Municipal Buildings, Freeth St., OLDBURY. (entrance back of buildings in Tabernacle St.,)

Wolverhampton League Lightning Tournament.

This event unfortunately clashed with a big football match at W-ton and this probably accounted for the poor attendance of just 10 teams. Harry Baines once again performed admirably as controller - something we seem to take for granted at these functions.

The results were :- Walsall Kipping 'A' 21; Walsall Kipping 'C' 17; Stafford 14; Springvale 12; Walsall Kipping 'B' 12; West Bromwich 10½; Wolverhampton 10; Mercia 9½; Rugeley 9½; Cosford 5.

SHROPSHIRE v STAFFORDSHIRE. I.

Played at Shrewsbury on Saturday, October 27th. 1973.

Although quite a few reserve players made up the Staffs team it was still too strong for the Salop side and won probably more easily than expected.

NOTES:

- (a) The Steinitz Defence to the Ponziani Opening. Very unusual!
- (b) Ambitious play by White, but 8. P-Q3 is perhaps more prudent.
- (c) Interesting but bad. Also bad is 10. PXP ? BxN; 11. PXP PXP!; 12. PxB R-N1 ch; 13. K-N1 Q-R6; White's best appears to be 10. Q-Q1.
- (d) Shattering White's king-side. 11.... B-B2; 12. P-Q5 gives White some play for his pawn.
- (e) 14... PXP is also strong, but Black decides to go more directly for mate.
- (f) Other moves also lose rapidly, e.g. 18. RxN NxR; 19. QxRP R-QR3 trapping White's queen, or 18. RxN NxR; 19. N-N5 Q-N5ch; 20. K-B1 Q-R6ch; 21. K-K1 R-QR3; 22. Q-Q1 B-N5ch.

NOTES:

- (a) 2... Pxl appears quite playable, but Black wants to try for a quick win and so transposes into a King's Gambit Reversed in which White's P-QB4 may turn out to be a liability.
- (b) 3. P-Q4?! is another interesting possibility.
- (c) 7.... R-K1 is less wild.
- (d) 9. Q-N3 is much stronger. So is 9. Q-O. The move played is the prelude to

- (f) Stronger is 13... QxN; 14. B-B4ch K-R1; 15. N-B7ch RxN; 16. BxR? (16. QxRch R-B1), R-QN1; 17. Q-Q5 N(5)-K4; 18. B-R5 N-KB3; and White's Queen is trapped. But Black's pieces also dominate the board after 13... BxN.
- (g) 23. Q-KN3 would hold out longer.
- (h) White must lose his Queen or be mated; e... 25. Q-R6 RxBch!; 26. RxR QxQpch. White has been drastically punished for ignoring his development.

TEESIDE REVERBERATIONS from R.A. BEACH.

This year the venue of the annual CHESS Festival was changed from Southport - where it has been held for several years - to Teesside and held alongside the World Junior Championships. It will probably change location again next year.

The Open Championship was made more interesting by the participation of an exceptional number of foreign players, probably because of the World Junior event which was played in the same building. Competitors had entered from Hungary, Holland, France, Germany, Tunis, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, U.S.A. Columbia, Spain and Switzerland as well as from the British Isles; in fact, almost half the competitors were from overseas.

I achieved one of my best tournament results, being up with the leaders all the second week and sharing 6th. prize with Gasic (Yugoslavia) and Lombard from (Switzerland). The joint winners were Adorjan (Hungary) and Alster (Czechoslovakia) and joint 3rd. prize winners Cuartas (Columbia), D. Farr (Reading) and Pritchett (Scotland).

My results included a draw against International Master Adorjan and wins against Yugoslav Masters Gasic and Raicevic.

Here is my last round game.

White: V. Raicevic (Yugoslavia). Black: R.A. Beach.

NOTES;

- (a) An interesting alternative to the usual squares K2 or KB3 for the Knight; the Knight will later proceed to KB4 KB2.
- (b) Black commences his king-side attack; but it will be a slow build up and he must also meet strong pressure against his queen-side.
- (c) Another mysterious knight move ! I-B6 is now threatened, additional support is given to the KB1 if it remains on KB5 to maintain the tension until the right moment comes, and the KRf is left free to advance to KR5.
- (d) 21. P-N6 should have been tried.
- (e) 22. R-B4 R-R2; leaves Black's pieces tied down to the defence of his QBf, and he would then have difficulty in transferring them to the king side for his own attack.
- (f) This is intended to prepare Q-Q2 - KB4 without White replying N-KN5 -K6.
- (g) 26... K-N2 is better.
- (h) White threatened 28. RxB RxR; Q-R8 ch.
- (i) White sacrifices the exchange anyway. A better reply to Black's threat of 28.... N-B1 is 28. Q-B4 (28.... NxI; 29. RxB)
- (j) 29. Q-R8ch is now answered by 29.... Q-B1.
- (k) This enables White to open lines and set problems. 29.... KfxI is correct.
- (l) 31. Q-R8 R-QR2; 32. Q-N8 threatening 33. P-Q6, also sets Black some tricky problems.
- (m) 33.... KBfxI seems better, since White can play 34. R-Q1! against the text.
- (n) White should capture the Q1 while he has the chance.
- (o) And now 39. B-B6 is best.
- (p) Black could now complete his consolidation with 39.... B-B1.
- (q) As expected, White declines to exchange queens and capture the Q1.
- (r) But now, this capture allows Black to win with a neat combination.
- (s) The threat was 44.... Q-R6 mate. 44. Q-Q5 is also refuted by 44.... RxB!
