WOLVERHAMPTON & DISTRICT CHESS LEAGUE

Newsletter No. Two

Season 2000/2001

Editor K G Humphreys, 82 Vernier Avenue Kingswinford DY6 8SA

☎ 01384 571486

The battle for Division One is hotting up. The top five clubs have several matches to play amongst themselves. Lichfield, who are sure to lose to Bushbury, have to play three of the top five sides. Kidderminster and Stourbridge must play two of the top five, (including each other), whilst Shifnal & Telford have one to play. West Bromwich have already completed their matches with the other four.

Division Two - Wolverhampton A, who have completed their fixtures, must wait to see if Rushall is able to catch up with both them and Lichfield.

Division Three - Stourbridge seem fairly certain of promotion having already won a currently unfinished match.

Division Four - Lichfield and Rushall are battling for first place.

Please refer to the league tables which appear later in this bulletin.

Late Cards - One late card each for - Lucas BS, Lichfield C, St James

You will see we have an obituary to Fred Tatler, whom I first met in the season 1949/50 when I was captain of the Wolverhampton Kipping 'B' team in the first year of the newly formed Second Division of the Wolverhampton league. The match was at Richard Thomas and Baldwins, Brierley Hill. Fred was one of their team players. We often met at congresses, with Fred as a player and me helping to organise the events. We also met at the M.C.C.U meetings when Fred came along as one of the Worcestershire county team.

Fred will be much missed, not only by those within the world of Chess but by all who knew him.

Fred Tatler
(1926 - 2001)

Although Fred was born in Stoke on Trent he grew up and spent all his life in the Black Country. He had a brother and sister who both survive him. He went to Hawbush primary school and then on to Audnam Secondary School in Bretel Lane, Amblecote. He worked for Baldwins, toolmakers. During the millennium year 2000 Fred and his wife, Betty, celebrated 50 years of married life. Forty of those years were spent in the same house in Bridgnorth Road, Stourbridge.

To his family Fred was a real hero. The tribute paid to him by his son David at his memorial service was moving beyond words. Very few sons could pay tribute to their fathers in the way David did. He described an animated story-teller who could separate himself from anything that was ugly in life. A man who watched "The Wizard of Oz" or another Disney classic three times per week, who listened to opera, and most of all who never had a bad word to say about anyone. Betty also told me that Fred had read "The Lord of the Rings" at least 8 times

Fred was always a competitor in life. He never lost his

Fred was well known in the Birmingham, Wolverhampton, Dudley, and Worcestershire leagues, where he played regularly right up to his sudden death. 150 people attended his funeral last Monday. He will be missed with great affection by all who knew him thirst to win although always in the most gentlemanly manner. He also excelled in a number of pastimes. In his time Fred was a cross-country runner, a wrestler, a boxer, a cyclist, a ballroom dancer, a country dancer and, of course, a chess player.

Fred also once tried to set up a local draughts club. He even appeared on Midlands Television local news with Tom Coine. Nothing came of it and he continued with local chess clubs instead.

It is as a chess player that many of his friends will remember him. Both for Stourbridge and for the Hagley clubs he really did provide a lifetime of dedicated service, both as a player and an organiser. He has captained teams at all levels, including the Worcestershire first team. He has organised at league and club level. Most of all he was the most dependable man to have in the team. He would drive anywhere to play chess. In his time he has beaten players graded in the high 190's and was playing for Stourbridge in a Division IV Birmingham League match on the night he died.

I was only able to find a few score books kept by Fred. In December 1999, at the age of 71 he wrote the following comment about a game against a Birmingham Division One player; "I feel at last I am slowly starting to improve"

The following game was an 18 move win played in February 1996. Fred was white against Iain Wilson of Telford, in a Wolverhampton League match, Division One. It sums up Fred at the Board - always attacking and always playing his moves as quickly as he could:
