CORRECTION.

Richard Beach points out an error in the November issue of Staffs Chess News. He points out that in Andrew Morley's Simultaneous display at Stoke Sports Festival, he lost 3 games, to John and Andrew Picher (both Electra) and to Roger Edwards (Victory).

GODLYEARS CHESS CONGRESS.

The experiment of holding a Congress in the Wolverhampton area proved partially successful but - in view of the generous prizes - not many entries were received for the Open Section.

The response was sufficient however, to prompt the Sponsors, which is GOODYEARS, to try again next year and invite entries from any interested players. The Open this year was confined to Wolverhampton League players only and other applications from other sources were refused entry.

The Staffs Captain, Eric Lees, was extremely pleased with this performance particularly as the team was completely out-graded and also much weaker on paper than the team which lost to Worcester.

This match and the Junior event was marred by the number of games won by Default. Although a point gained in this way benefits the County I feel quite sure that the players concerned would much rather have preferred to gain it over the board. It is a long way from North Staffs to Hereford and one can only hope that the players
