32. Q-R5 Adjudication time. White resigned (j).

NOTES:-

(a) After this, White soon finds himself in difficulties. He is a vital tempo behind compared with the Advance Variation of the Caro-Kann, in which Black takes two moves to advance his QBP to QB4. 3. PXP is usual.

(b) Creating a target against which Black quickly applies strong pressure. 4. P-KB4 is perhaps safer.

(c). 7. P-QR3 is necessary to keep various Black pieces out of White's QN4.

(d). 9. NxB NxN; 10. Q-R4 ch K-Q1 would leave White with no satisfactory answer to the threats of ... N-B7 ch or --- N-Q6 ch:, so White decides to sacrifice a couple of pawns.

(e) 16. B-K3 is far stronger, setting Black some tricky defensive problems. But White has less than 10 minutes in which to reach the time control at move 30.

(f). Wisely declining the further sacrifice. No need to take unnecessary risks.

(g). 22. Q-R5 O-O: 23. P-KN4 can be answered by 23... B-Q1:

(h). Losing a third pawn. Better 25. BxN.

(j). A well played game by a promising young player who never allowed his highly graded opponent any chance to recover from a poor opening.

(with the immediate threat of 16. Q-B2) 15... B-N2: 16. Q-R3! KR-Q1? (black was worried about the threat of 17. B-K2)N4 before or after doubling rooks on the KB file, but better was 16... QR-Q1) 17. RxP! KxR (17... Q-Q3: 18.
QR-KB1 is hopeless): 18. Q-K6 ch K-B1: 19. R-B1 ch N-B3 (or 19... B-KB3:
20. B-R6 mate). 20. BxP ch QxB: 21. NxQ B-B1: 22. RxN ch BxR: 23. QxB ch

RICHARD BEACH at the 50 th Hastings International Chess Congress.

I scored 5 pts from 10 in this year's Hastings Challengers. The 72 competitors in the tournament as usual included a strong foreign entry, including several West Germans and Yugoslavs as well as players from Jersey, Pakistan, Austria, Holland, India, Denmark, Poland, etc., Despite this strong foreign challenge, the first two places went to Robert Bellin of Great Yarmouth with 8 pts and Jonathan Speelman of London with 7½. My own score was half a point less than last year, but this time I met stronger opposition. As well as achieving draws against both tournament winner Bellin and international master Z. Mestrovic (Yugoslavia), I also played three of the six players who shared third prize. Unfortunately, having made a good start, I then finished by losing my last two games.

This was the 50th. Hastings International Chess Congress, and at the Opening Ceremony a chair similar to that used by Bobby Fischer at Reykjavik was presented to Tony Miles in recognition of his winning the World Junior

It is to be hoped that additional sponsorship can be found before next year's Congress otherwise the 50th could also be the last. This year's Congress, although receiving sponsorship from Jim Slater and the Friends of Chess plus Hastings Borough Council, was only enabled to go ahead because of a late offer by chief controller Ritson Morry to Underwrite any loss which might be made.
